STATEMENT OF FAITH

The Church is an organized body of baptized believers in the resurrected Lord Jesus Christ, under the leadership of the Holy Spirit and, while recognizing diversity in methods, united in purpose: to gather in worship; proclaim the truth of the Holy Bible; equip our membership for Christian service, spiritual growth and Christ-like living; and to carry out the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20).

ARTICLE THREE

GENERAL CORPORATE INFORMATION

- 3.1 Name. The name of this corporation is “Quail Springs Baptist Church, Inc.”

- 3.2 Principal Office. The principal office of the Corporation shall be located in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma at such address as is approved by the Members. The Members may establish such other offices as the business of the Corporation requires.
- 3.3 Registered Office. The Corporation shall have and continuously maintain a registered office in Oklahoma and a registered agent whose office is the same as the registered office.
- 3.4 Purposes and Objectives. The Corporation is organized and operated exclusively for religious and charitable purposes. The objectives of the Corporation include: (1) to come together for worship, prayer and Bible study in loving fellowship; (2) to reach out to and evangelize people who do not have a personal, eternal relationship with Jesus Christ as Savior, wherever our influence extends; (3) to follow the leadership of the Lord Jesus Christ; and (4) to minister to the total needs of people in our community and around the world in the name of Jesus and in the power of the Holy Spirit. Subject to the foregoing, the Corporation shall have and may exercise all of the powers of nonprofit corporations under Oklahoma and federal law.
- 3.5 Restrictions. At no time, either on dissolution or any time prior to dissolution, shall any part of the funds or assets of the Corporation inure to the benefit of any private individual, nor be used for the purpose of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, except as may be permitted by law and the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (the “Code”) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws (all references herein to the Code shall include reference to any corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws). The Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.
- 3.6 Charitable Activities. The Corporation shall carry on only those activities permitted to be carried on by a charitable organization as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

ARTICLE FOUR

MANAGEMENT AND GUIDING PRINCIPLES

- 4.1 Management by Members and Delegation of Authority. As set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation, the management of the Corporation is vested in the Members. All references under Oklahoma law to the “governing body” or “members” of a not-for-profit Corporation shall be deemed to refer to the Members. Only active Members shall be entitled to vote. The Members have delegated authority to direct and manage the day-to-day business and affairs of the Corporation to the Senior Pastor, Senior Ministry Staff, Church Staff, Officers and Committees and Organizations described in these Bylaws and in the Church Policies. The Senior Pastor, Senior Ministry Staff, Church Staff, Officers and Committees and Organizations shall have the authority and discretion delegated to them by the Members to make any and all decisions concerning the business of the Corporation within the scope of their duties, subject to obtaining the approval of the Members for any decisions requiring such approval, as set forth in these Bylaws.

- 4.2 Major Decisions Requiring Member Approval. The approval of two-thirds (2/3) of the Members voting at a meeting at which a quorum is present is required for the following actions, as described in further detail in the Articles identified below:
- (a) Changing the location of the Church as set forth in Article 3.2;
 - (b) Admitting a Member as set forth in Article 6;
 - (c) Calling and removing the Senior Pastor or any member of the Ministerial Staff as set forth in Article 7;
 - (d) Electing, removing and establishing the number of Deacons as set forth in Article 8;
 - (e) Electing and removing Officers as set forth in Article 9;
 - (f) Establishing Committees and Organizations as set forth in Article 10;
 - (g) Major decisions involving Church property as set forth in Article 13.2;
 - (h) Approving the Church budget as set forth in Article 14.5;
 - (i) Changing the fiscal year as set forth in Article 14.6;
 - (j) Incurring any indebtedness or making any expenditure of Church funds in excess of $100,000 as set forth in Article 14.7;
 - (k) Liquidating, dissolving or reorganizing the Corporation; and
 - (l) Amending the Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws as set forth in Article 17.
- 4.3 Affiliation. The Church is autonomous and is not subject to the control of any other ecclesiastical body, but it recognizes the mutual counsel and cooperation which is common among Southern Baptist Churches. Insofar as it advances the purposes of the Members as led by the Holy Spirit, this Church will cooperate with and support the Capital Baptist Association, the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma and the Southern Baptist Convention.
- 4.4 Holy Bible. Because the Holy Bible is God's self-revelation to humanity, we submit ourselves under it completely. All affairs, business, conduct and activity of the Church will be governed by and are subject to the Holy Bible.
- 4.5 The Baptist Faith and Message. We see The Baptist Faith and Message 2000 as an accurate confession of faith based on the Holy Bible. Because of this, we align ourselves with the doctrines set forth in The Baptist Faith and Message 2000, and they shall be used for guidance in the programs and teachings of the Church. It is imperative that all persons employed by the Church in any capacity or who serve as volunteers abide by our doctrinal beliefs and conduct themselves accordingly.

- 4.6 Marriage and Family. The Holy Bible, our statement of faith, and The Baptist Faith and Message 2000, express our fundamental biblical conviction that Christian marriage is, by definition, the spiritual and physical uniting of one man and one woman in an exclusive covenant commitment for their joint lifetime. Christian marriage is God's unique gift to reveal the union between Christ and His Church. As such, this Church believes that wedding ceremonies on Church property are spiritual observances of worship of God who created this divine institution. As worship services, weddings on Church property shall be officiated by one or more ordained ministers of the gospel. The Church may decline to make its facilities or ministers available for any wedding if it is determined that one or both of the parties are not biblically and/or legally qualified to marry. Such determinations may be made by the Senior Pastor or Senior Ministry Staff, subject to the direction of the Members. No minister or other member of the Church Staff shall officiate at any marriage ceremony unless such marriage is consistent with this policy.
- 4.7 Policies. The Corporation may adopt Church Policies to govern the operational, ministerial and management activities of the Church. In the event that any Church Policy is in conflict with these Bylaws or the Certificate of Incorporation, the Bylaws and Certificate of Incorporation shall control.
- 4.8 Bylaws Interpretation. The Senior Pastor or Executive Pastor may convene the Congregational Council to resolve ambiguity or provide clarity in the interpretation of the Bylaws.

ARTICLE FIVE COVENANT OF MEMBERS

In furtherance of the spirit of unity, oneness and commitment to the Word of God, the Members adopt the following covenant of Members:

- 5.1 Having each been individually led by the Spirit of God to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior and Lord and, on the profession of our faith in Christ, having been baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, we do now, in the presence of God and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another as one body in Christ.
- 5.2 We commit corporately by the aid of the Holy Spirit:
- (a) To walk together in Christian love;
 - (b) To strive for the advancement of this Church, in knowledge, holiness and comfort;
 - (c) To promote the prosperity and spirituality of this Church and its Members;
 - (d) To sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrines; and

(e) To be good stewards of our earthly possessions by tithing cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the Church, the relief of the poor and the spread of the gospel through the United States and all nations.

5.3 Individually we commit:

(a) To maintain family and private devotions;

(b) To educate our children in our faith;

(c) To seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances;

(d) To walk circumspectly in the world;

(e) To be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our conduct; and

(f) To be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Savior and promote Christian values in our society.

5.4 Moreover, we commit that when we remove from this place we will, as soon as possible, unite with another Church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word.

ARTICLE SIX

MEMBERSHIP

6.1 General. The Church is a sovereign and democratic Baptist Church under the lordship of Jesus Christ. The Members as a group retain unto itself the exclusive right of self-government in all phases of the spiritual and temporal life of this Church. The Members reserve the right, exclusive of any other authority, to determine who shall be Members of this Church and the conditions of such membership, subject to the process described in this Article 6.

6.2 Process. Any person may offer him or herself as a candidate for membership in this Church. No candidate shall be presented for membership to the Members unless a member of the Senior Ministry Staff has first approved such candidate for membership. A list of all such candidates for membership shall be presented to the Members during a quarterly business meeting. Absent dissent from any Member, the candidate for membership shall be admitted as a Member upon approval by the Members. Membership may be granted based upon satisfaction of any of the following criteria:

(a) By profession of faith and baptism according to the policies of this Church; or

(b) By promise of letter of recommendation from another church recognized and acknowledged as being of like faith and order; or

- (c) By restoration, when no letter is obtainable, upon a statement of prior conversion experience and baptism in accordance with the Scriptures.
- 6.3 Dissent. Should there be dissent as to any candidate for membership, such dissent shall be referred to the Senior Ministry Staff for investigation and recommendation to the Members. The candidate shall not become a Member unless the Members approve his or her membership at the next regular business meeting following completion of the investigation.
- 6.4 Disciplinary Action. All Members are subject to the discipline of the Church under the following conditions:
- (a) Assistance. The Church shall emphasize to the Members that every reasonable measure will be taken to assist a Member. The Senior Pastor, other members of the Church Staff and the Deacons are available for counsel, guidance and mediation. Assistance rather than punishment or judgment will be the guideline, which governs the attitude of one Member toward another. (Matt. 18:15-17, 1 Cor. 5, Gal. 6:1). Should a serious condition exist which would cause a Member to become a liability to the welfare, name or service of the Church, or to interfere with the pursuit of any of the purposes of the Church, every reasonable measure will be taken by the Senior Pastor or his designee to resolve the problem. Any Member who notices such a condition should report the same to the Senior Pastor. All proceedings shall be pervaded by a spirit of Christian kindness and forbearance.
- (b) Voluntary Withdrawal and Placement on Inactive Status. Upon a finding by the Senior Pastor that the welfare of the Church and the welfare of the Member will best be served by the withdrawal of the Member, the Senior Pastor will counsel with the Member to seek a voluntary withdrawal. The Senior Pastor may also consider placing the Member on inactive status if appropriate under the circumstances. A Member placed on inactive status may attend meetings of the Church but will not have the right to vote.
- (c) Involuntary Removal. If inactive status is not appropriate under the circumstances, and the Member declines to voluntarily withdraw, the Senior Pastor may call a meeting of the Congregational Council. At such meeting, the Congregational Council will review steps taken for discipline and restoration, and if it is found that restoration is proven not possible, the Congregational Council will confirm the decision with the Senior Pastor for removal. The individual's name shall be stricken from the membership roll, and the individual shall immediately lose all rights of membership in the Church. The change in the individual's membership status will be noted in the membership report at the next regularly scheduled business meeting. Additional action may be taken, if necessary.
- (d) Restoration. Any person whose membership has been terminated may be restored to membership upon request by following the procedures set forth in this Article.
- 6.5 Termination of Membership. Membership will be terminated upon the occurrence of any of the following events: (a) death, (b) transfer to another Baptist church, (c) voluntary withdrawal or (d) removal by action of the Senior Pastor and Congregational Council.

Recognizing that the reasons for termination may involve sensitive matters, the Church leadership will seek to preserve the confidentiality of such reasons to the extent possible. Nevertheless, all Members agree that if they have individually participated in activity and conduct as to lead to disciplinary action potentially leading to their expulsion from the Church membership, their voluntary withdrawal does not prevent the Church or the Officers from making public to the other Members the reason for the withdrawal if such publication is deemed in the best interest of the Church. If a voluntary withdrawal occurs under circumstances for which the Member might have otherwise been expelled, the Church has no obligation to forward a letter or statement of membership to any other Church and may explain the reason for such refusal to any Church requesting a membership letter or recommendation. All Members waive and release the Church from any liability for any alleged or actual liability for such disclosure of facts.

ARTICLE SEVEN

SENIOR PASTOR AND CHURCH STAFF

- 7.1 Senior Pastor. The Senior Pastor of the Church shall be called by God specifically to Quail Springs Baptist Church and shall lead the Church under the following guidelines:
- (a) Role. The Senior Pastor is responsible for leading the Church to function as a healthy New Testament Church under the leadership of the Holy Spirit. The Senior Pastor will lead the Members, the Church Staff and the Committees and Organizations in the performance of their tasks. The Senior Pastor is the leader of Pastoral ministries of the Church. As such, he is to work with the Church Staff, the Deacons and all other Members to achieve the Church's mission to proclaim the gospel to believers and unbelievers and to care for the Members and for other persons in the community.
 - (b) Nomination and Election. When a vacancy occurs, a new Senior Pastor shall be chosen and called by the Members in the following manner.
 - 1. A Senior Pastor Transition Council shall be formed composed of seven members including the then current Deacon Chairman along with the six most recent prior Deacon Chairmen who are willing and eligible to serve. Once formed, the initial members of the Senior Pastor Transition Council shall continue to serve until the new Senior Pastor has been elected by the Members and has begun to serve, at which time the Senior Pastor Transition Council shall be disbanded. The tasks of this Council shall be to provide advice and counsel to the Senior Ministry Staff as they direct the day-to-day business of the Church during the time the Senior Pastor position is vacant, to consult with the Senior Ministry Staff for the selection of one or more individuals for pulpit supply during the time the Senior Pastor position is vacant, to collect and review nominations from the Members for individuals to serve on a Senior Pastor Search Committee, to select individuals that represent different areas of Church life and determine their willingness to serve before recommending them to the Church for election to the Senior Pastor Search Committee, and to supervise the Senior Pastor election process after the Senior Pastor Search Committee has presented a candidate.

2. A Senior Pastor Search Committee shall be elected by the Members to search for a new Senior Pastor. This Committee shall be composed of seven members and two alternates as recommended by the Senior Pastor Transition Council. The Senior Pastor Search Committee will search for a candidate for the Senior Pastor position and shall bring to the consideration of the Members only one nominee at a time. The Senior Pastor Search Committee will serve until the new Senior Pastor has been elected by the Members and has begun to serve, at which time it will be disbanded.
3. Election of the Senior Pastor by the Members shall be by secret ballot at one or more special business meetings called during Sunday morning Worship Service(s) for the sole purpose of voting on the Senior Pastor nominee presented by the Senior Pastor Search Committee. The Senior Pastor Transition Council shall devise a voting process for the election to assure only Members may cast ballots while maintaining ballot secrecy. The Senior Pastor Transition Council shall be responsible for counting the ballots, certifying the count, and reporting the election results to the Church. If elected by the Members, the new Senior Pastor shall serve until the earlier of his resignation or removal by the Members.

(c) Resignation and Removal. The Senior Pastor may resign upon giving reasonable notice to the Members.

1. The involuntary removal process for the Senior Pastor may be initiated by any of the following procedures:
 - i. A group of at least 2 or more Members, in keeping with 1 Timothy 5:19, may bring a written recommendation signed by the recommending Members for involuntary removal of the Senior Pastor to either the Congregational Council or the Personnel Committee;
 - ii. All members of the Senior Ministry Staff, other than the Senior Pastor, bring a unanimous recommendation for involuntary removal of the Senior Pastor; or
 - iii. At least fifty (50) Members bring a written recommendation signed by all recommending Members for involuntary removal of the Senior Pastor. This recommendation can be presented directly to either the Personnel Committee or the Congregational Council, or presented at a special business meeting called for the sole purpose of considering such removal.
2. Once the recommendation for involuntary removal of the Senior Pastor has been received, the procedures listed below shall be followed:

- i. The recommendation for involuntary removal must be presented to both the Personnel Committee and the Congregational Council. Once that recommendation is presented to each group, all members of each group shall be allowed forty-eight (48) hours to review, deliberate and pray prior to holding a vote. The recommendation for involuntary removal must be approved by majority vote separately by the Personnel Committee and the Congregational Council.
- ii. After the Personnel Committee and the Congregational Council have reached a conclusion and prior to holding a vote of the Members, the Congregational Council shall present a report of the findings of both the Personnel Committee and the Congregational Council to the Members at a special business meeting. The report of the Congregational Council must include whether the recommendation for involuntary removal received necessary approval from both the Personnel Committee and the Congregational Council.

If a recommendation was submitted to the Congregational Council or Personnel Committee under 7.1(c)(1)(i) and the findings of these committees does not conclude with a recommendation for removal, the committees must report to the individual(s) who brought the recommendation and shall not report to the Membership at large. Following the disposition of the Members' recommendation, the same Members may not again resubmit a same or similar recommendation for involuntary removal of the Senior Pastor to these committees under 7.1(c)(1)(i).

- iii. If recommendation for involuntary removal receives necessary approval from both groups, then a vote of the Members is required at a special business meeting called for the sole purpose of considering such removal. The recommendation for involuntary removal of the Senior Pastor is not effective unless approved by a vote of the Members.
- iv. If after the above process concludes and the report from the Congregational Council and Personnel Committee to the Church at the special business meeting does not include a recommendation for involuntary removal, then a motion, if so offered, may be properly received from the floor for a vote of the Members for the involuntary removal of the Senior Pastor.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Senior Ministry Staff shall be entitled to remove the Senior Pastor immediately without prior approval by the Members in the event of gross misconduct by the Senior Pastor.

7.2 Senior Ministry Staff. The Senior Ministry Staff shall at a minimum consist of the Senior Pastor, Executive Pastor, Next Generation Executive Pastor, Church Business Administrator, Adult Discipleship Pastor and Minister of Missions and Evangelism. The Members authorize the Senior Ministry Staff to manage and direct the day-to-day business and affairs of the Church, subject to the decisions requiring approval by the Members as set forth in Article 4.2.

(a) Nomination and Election. Whenever the Members desire to call a full-time member of the Senior Ministry Staff (other than the Senior Pastor), a search committee shall be approved by the Members to seek and to recommend a person for such Senior Ministry Staff position. This search committee shall be composed of seven members and two alternates as recommended by the Senior Pastor and the remaining Senior Ministry Staff members. If the Ministerial Staff position is new, the search committee shall recommend to the Members the job description for the position. This job description must include a designation that the new position is a member of the Senior Ministry Staff. The Search Committee will search for a candidate for the vacant position and shall bring only one nominee at a time for consideration. Election of the Senior Ministry Staff position shall be by vote of the Members either at a regular business meeting or at a special business meeting called for that purpose. The search committee will serve until the position has been filled and that individual has begun to serve, at which time it will be disbanded.

(b) Resignation and Removal. Any member of the Senior Ministry Staff may resign upon giving reasonable notice to the Members.

1. The involuntary removal process for a member of the Senior Ministry Staff may be initiated by any of the following procedures:

i. A group of at least 2 or more Members, in keeping with 1 Timothy 5:19, may bring a written recommendation signed by the recommending Members for involuntary removal of a member of Senior Ministry Staff to either the Congregational Council or the Personnel Committee;

ii. The Senior Pastor may bring a recommendation for involuntary removal of a member of the Senior Ministry Staff. In the absence of a Senior Pastor, the Senior Ministry Staff may vote to bring a unanimous recommendation for involuntary removal of a member of the Senior Ministry Staff. The member who is being voted upon is precluded from voting. In the event that the position held by this member is either (i) not immediately being replaced or (ii) being eliminated, the recommendation for involuntary removal must include a reassignment or reallocation plan for any job responsibilities included in that position; or

iii. At least fifty (50) Members must bring a written recommendation signed by all recommending Members for involuntary removal of a member of Senior Ministry Staff. This recommendation can be presented directly to either the Personnel Committee or the Congregational Council, or presented at a special business meeting called for the sole purpose of considering such removal.

2. Once the recommendation for involuntary removal of a member of the Senior Ministry Staff has been received, the procedures listed below shall be followed:

- i. The recommendation for involuntary removal must be presented to both the Personnel Committee and the Congregational Council. Once that recommendation is presented to each group, all members of each group shall be allowed forty-eight (48) hours to review, deliberate and pray prior to holding a vote. The recommendation for involuntary removal must be approved by majority vote separately by the Personnel Committee and the Congregational Council.
- ii. After the Personnel Committee and the Congregational Council have reached a conclusion and prior to holding a vote of the Members, the Congregational Council shall present a report of the findings of both the Personnel Committee and the Congregational Council to the Members at a special business meeting. The report of the Congregational Council must include whether the recommendation for involuntary removal received necessary approval from both the Personnel Committee and the Congregational Council.

If a recommendation was submitted to the Congregational Council or Personnel Committee under 7.2(b)(1)(i) and the findings of these committees does not conclude with a recommendation for removal, the committees must report to the individual(s) who brought the recommendation and shall not report to the Membership at large. Following the disposition of the Members' recommendation, the same Members may not again resubmit a same or similar recommendation for involuntary removal of the same member of the Senior Ministry Staff to these committees under 7.2(b)(1)(i).

- iii. If recommendation for involuntary removal receives necessary approval from both groups, then a vote of the Members is required at a special business meeting called for the sole purpose of considering such removal. The recommendation for involuntary removal of a member of the Senior Ministry Staff is not effective unless approved by a vote of the Members.
- iv. If after the above process concludes and the report from the Congregational Council and Personnel Committee to the Church at the special business meeting does not include a recommendation for involuntary removal, then a motion, if so offered, may be properly received from the floor for a vote of the Members for the involuntary removal of a member of Senior Ministry Staff.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Senior Pastor or the Senior Ministry Staff shall be entitled to remove a member of the Senior Ministry Staff immediately without prior approval by the Members in the event of gross misconduct by that member of the Senior Ministry Staff.

7.3 Lead Ministry Staff. The Lead Ministry Staff shall consist of those staff positions that directly report to a member of the Senior Ministry Staff and who serve primarily in a ministerial capacity.

(a) Nomination and Election. If the Members desire to call a full-time member of the Lead Ministry Staff, a search committee shall be approved by the Members to seek and to recommend a person for such Ministerial Staff position. This search committee shall be composed of seven members and two alternates as recommended by the Senior Pastor and the Senior Ministry Staff. If the Lead Ministry Staff position is new, the search committee shall recommend to the Members the job description for the position. This job description must include a designation that this position is a member of Lead Ministry Staff and that the position was filled by calling. The search committee shall function in a manner similar to the Senior Pastor and Senior Ministry Staff search committee(s) in making recommendations to the Members. The Members may call a member of the Lead Ministry Staff by vote at a regular or special business meeting. The Members will not be required to vote by secret ballot. Each called member of the Lead Ministry Staff shall serve until the earlier of his or her resignation or removal by the Members.

(b) Resignation and Removal. Any member of the Lead Ministry Staff may resign upon giving reasonable notice to the Members. A member of the Lead Ministry Staff may be involuntarily removed by the following procedures:

1. The Senior Pastor may bring a recommendation for involuntary removal of a member of the Lead Ministry Staff. In the absence of a Senior Pastor, the Senior Ministry Staff may vote to bring a unanimous recommendation for involuntary removal of a member of the Lead Ministry Staff. In the event that the position held by this member is either (i) not immediately being replaced or (ii) being eliminated, the recommendation for involuntary removal must include a reassignment or reallocation plan for any job responsibilities included in that position.
2. The recommendation for involuntary removal must be presented to the Personnel Committee and the Congregational Council for approval. Once that recommendation is presented to each group, all members of that group shall be allowed forty-eight (48) hours to review, deliberate and pray prior to holding a vote. The recommendation for involuntary removal must be approved by majority vote separately by the Personnel Committee and the Congregational Council.

3. If recommendation for involuntary removal receives necessary approval from both groups, then a vote of the Members is required at a special business meeting called for the sole purpose of considering such removal. The recommendation for involuntary removal of the Lead Ministry Staff member must be approved by a vote of the Members.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Senior Pastor or the Senior Ministry Staff shall be entitled to remove a member of the Lead Ministry Staff immediately without prior approval by the Members in the event of gross misconduct by that member of the Lead Ministry Staff.

7.4 Associate Ministry Staff. The Associate Ministry Staff shall consist of those staff positions that directly report to a member of the Lead Ministry Staff and who serve primarily in a ministerial capacity.

- (a) Approval. Associate Ministry Staff may be offered employment by the Church if approved by the Senior Ministry Staff. Although Associate Ministry Staff positions must be included in the Church budget, which is ultimately approved by the Members, their hiring will not require approval by the Members. The Associate Ministry Staff member shall be introduced to the Members at the next regular business meeting after their hiring. Each member of the Associate Ministry Staff shall serve until the earlier of his or her resignation or removal.
- (b) Resignation and Removal. A member of the Associate Ministry Staff shall give at least two weeks' notice at the time of resignation. A member of the Associate Ministry Staff may be removed from his or her position if the Senior Pastor or the Senior Ministry Staff has presented the facts to the Personnel Committee and the Personnel Committee has voted to accept the Senior Pastor's or the Senior Ministry Staff's recommendation. Approval of the Members is not required. Notice of such action will be given to the Members during the following regular business meeting.

7.5 Non-ministerial Staff.

- (a) Approval. Exempt and non-exempt Non-ministerial Staff may be offered employment by the Church if approved by the Senior Ministry Staff. Although Non-ministerial Staff positions must be included in the Church budget, which is ultimately approved by the Members, their hiring will not require approval by the Members.
- (b) Resignation and Removal. A member of the Non-ministerial Staff shall give at least two weeks' notice at the time of resignation. A member of the Non-ministerial Staff may be removed from his or her position if the Senior Pastor or the Senior Ministry Staff has presented the facts to the Personnel Committee and the Personnel Committee has voted to accept the Senior Pastor's or Senior Ministry Staff's recommendation. Approval of the Members is not required. Notice of such action will be given to the Members during the following regular business meeting.

- 7.6 Restructure/Reorganization. The Senior Ministry Staff shall have the discretion to make any necessary staffing changes as long as there is no change in the staff level designation(s). Any changes involving staff level designation(s) shall require recommendation to and approval from the Personnel Committee and Congregational Council. Once that recommendation is presented to each group, all members of that group shall be allowed forty-eight (48) hours to review, deliberate and pray prior to holding a vote. The recommendation must be approved by majority vote separately by the Personnel Committee and the Congregational Council. Moreover, any recommendation for any staffing changes involving a position or staff member called by the Members must also be approved by a vote of the Members at a regular or special business meeting called for that purpose.
